

The QUEENSLANDER PICTORIAL.

FROM WAR-STRICKEN EUROPE

CHRISTMAS ON A BATTLESHIP. The photograph is of the crew of the ship's mess, and the British sailors, who are serving on the ship, are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The ship's mess is a large room with a high ceiling and a large window. The sailors are standing in a line, and the ship's mess is decorated with Christmas decorations.

READING THE LITERATURE FOR THE TROOPS IN THE FIELD. The man is looking at a book on one of the shelves. The room appears to be a library or a study.

A CHRISTMAS CAMP IN FRANCE. The camp is a simple structure made of stone and wood. The people are sitting on the ground, and the camp is decorated with Christmas decorations.
